is proud to present:

Aaron Wilson

Friday March 3 (evening),
Saturday, March 4 and
Sunday, March 5

Aaron Wilson, founder of Nationwide Equestrian, is a lifelong professional trainer and instructor living in Southern California. He is a United States Dressage Federation Bronze, Silver and Gold Medalist and “L” Judge. Aaron's multi-discipline experience in Dressage and Jumping gives him a broad spectrum of tools to help riders communicate with their horses. His training experience also includes: Performance Western Riding, and Eventing.

Aaron has developed an innovative riding system and theory which allows riders to tap into and isolate essential muscle groups to achieve balance and harmony. His simple clear technique helps riders build on their strengths and work through their weaknesses. By using his system, riders are able to understand and refine their motor skills and balance without causing discomfort to their horses.

Aaron accepts students of all ages and skills. His positivity and calm demeanor in the training ring make him an excellent clinician for children; while his expertise and Grand Prix level experience make him ideal for more advanced riders. Aaron has a true gift for solving riding problems. He is very patient but always pushes his students to achieve something more than they thought they could do.
